Please contact to your university desk on how to register for joining the above event as a presenter.

- Pre-online event for the English Day -

Tips for Short Presentation & Scientific Communication

This seminar will be held in English so that international students can clearly understand the purpose of the Doctoral Career Messe in advance! We will also give some tips on how to create short presentation slides and demonstrate presentations while actually interacting with students from different background and research fields. The main purpose of this pre-event is to interact with each other, so please feel free to join us!
